Dear Mr Meredith -

Thank you for your great courage in withstanding the pressures and possibilities of violence against you, and congratulations on being the first Negro to attend the University of Mississippi.

I feel that all of us, white and colored, as Americans, have the responsibility of truly making this "One Nation, indivisible, with liberty & justice for all".

You have certainly discharged your obligation to that great cause. I wish you every good success.

Very sincerely
Judy Urell
